

Monitoring Student Checking while Walking Around the Room

1. Monitor that students are checking their work (their eyes are on their papers).
2. Monitor that students are looking at the particular items being checked.
3. Check that students have and are using marking pens or pencils.
4. Monitor that students are marking X's and C's (or other symbols taught), and that students are making the marks appropriately next to the items, especially wrong items.